BLANKS!
FOR
Constables' Accounts with Rock Co., AT THE GAZETTE OFFICE.

Bricklets.
—Brownell has a large supply of delicious watermelons.
—There were several rows at the Fair Grounds yesterday, but no blood shed.
—The rain is welcome now, the more so, as it deferred its visit until after the Fair.
—The thermometer at Prentice and Evenson's to-day registered 65 degrees above zero at 7 a. m. and 75 degrees at 1 p. m.
—Mr. Samuel Hubbell is suffering from a black-eye administered by Howard Venable as the result of an altercation between the two men.
—The evening services at the different churches will hereafter commence at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30 o'clock as has been the observance heretofore.
—The first premium for buggy springs was awarded at the Fair to the Empire Cross Spring Co., and the second to the Single Center Spring Co., both of this city.
—Professor Severance dancing school will be held hereafter on Wednesday evenings. The attendance last night was quite gratifying to the professor, and the indications are that he will have two large classes.

—The question of jurisdiction of the municipal court in the case against M. H. Colby, of Clinton, for selling liquor without a license, was argued before Judge Patton to-day, who has not yet rendered his decision, but intimated that he was of the opinion that the municipal court had jurisdiction.
—Among the stables at the Fair which attracted attention was that of Mr. Lovi Carver of the town of Bradford, whose fine Norman-French horses were universally praised. A splendid gray stallion in particular was the object of general attention and his many fine points were were admired by every one.

—Mr. H. Bachholz, the Janesville carriage manufacturer took all of the first premiums at the Fair for which he competed, four in number. They were for the best display of carriages, the best carriage, the best open and the best top buggy. Considering the excellent exhibit made by other manufacturers, Mr. Bachholz' success is a great compliment.

—There were a large number of thieves in the city during the past few days, but thanks to the vigilance of Marshal Hogan and his aids, their intended depredations were prevented. Night before last a gang of them attempted raids on several houses in the Fourth ward, among which were the residences of Messrs. Kinney and Coventry. In every instance the would-be burglars were discovered before they could secure any plunder and fled.

—The City Council recently passed an ordinance against railroad companies blockading the streets but, there appears little desire to enforce it, and much less on the part of the companies to observe its provisions. The Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul road are constantly blocking streets and last night a freight train formed almost a complete barrier over High street for nearly twelve hours, to the great inconvenience of the public. If the Council passes ordinances, they should be enforced.

Young and middle-aged men, suffering from nervous debility and kindred affections, as loss of memory and hypochondria, should procure these stamps for Part VII of World's Dispensary Dime Series of Pamphlets. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

A Covetous Clerk.

A young man named Thomas Tewksbury, who has been the clerk at the Davis house for nearly a month, has disappeared, and with him a small amount of money belonging to the house, and a traveling man's overcoat. The house was crowded with guests who were here attending the Fair, and Mr. A. E. Bailey, proprietor of the hotel, and Mrs. Bailey, gave up their room and slept in the adjoining residence of Mr. G. H. Davis. Thomas D. Harlow, traveling for a Chicago firm, arrived during the night and was also assigned a room in the Davis residence. Before leaving the hotel he asked the clerk if his overcoat would be safe in the office. He was answered affirmatively and hung up the garment. Yesterday morning the overcoat was gone and about $8 in change, the proceeds of the sale of cigars. Tewksbury could not be found and his parents, very reputable people, who recently moved here, were perfectly ignorant of his whereabouts. They will make good the loss to Mr. Bailey, who will also settle for Mr. Harlow's overcoat.

AMUSEMENTS.

Myers Opera House.
The audience at the Opera house last night was very fair and sympathetic and "Rooms to Rent" was given acceptably by the Herbert combination. There is just enough sentiment scattered through the play, to prevent the farcical situations from becoming monotonous. The company will produce the Octoroon to-night, for their last performance here. The week's engagement has been fairly successful, though not what it should have been considering the warm weather, doubtless had a great deal to do with the attendance, as the Herbert Company is a popular one. The week's business, however, has been far from poor.
The company will leave for Beloit Monday morning, where they are billed for one week.

LAPPIN'S MUSIC HALL.
The third concert of the Myers Sisters, was greeted with a very small audience. Poor houses have been the rule with them, though the reason is not very manifest, unless it be that the people did not care to listen to good music. The company gave a really good entertainment and are worthy of the best recognition from the public, and as to-night is their last night in this city, it is to be hoped that they will be accorded the patronage so long deferred. The programme for to-night was selected with a great deal of care, and will be a fine one.

CLOSE OF THE FAIR.

Everybody Satisfied at the Result of the Annual Rock County Fair.

The busy, curious and strange gathering seen here every day for the past week, have disappeared, and few beyond the old familiar faces are now seen on the streets. The strange thousands who flocked to the city, impelled by a gregarious nature, have abandoned the scenes of a day and retired to their several avocations in life, with a bright remembrance that Rock county has had a glorious fair, and that they had participated in the festivities. The grounds this forenoon still presents an animated appearance, but a description totally different from the day before. Men, women and children were busily engaged in demolishing the temporary stands placed for the display of their wares, and removing every curious, useful or ornamental object which had attracted the attention of hundreds, had taken a premium or had been overlooked.

The glory of three days was rapidly disappearing in an hour. What had cost so much worry, anxiety and labor, was now regarded as worthless, as the elaborate stands were stripped bare of exhibits. Prize horses neighed a farewell to their kind from a distance, the premium pig grunted an adieu to the corn cobs in his pen, the cattle, sheep and everything were being transported from the unattractive scene, now that it had been deserted by its patrons. That the Fair has been highly successful, no one will deny, and that the management did all in their power to furnish attractive amusements is also generally recognized. Secretary Vaukirk was unremittant in his labors, and has received the commendation of every one who visited the Fair.

The sports on the track were very good, and the trotting and running races particularly so. Yesterday afternoon, after Dr. Loring's speech, the visitors were entertained with some good trotting, pacing, running, quot pitching and a variety of other sports.

For the trot there were five entries, W. F. Hayes proving the winner, losing only one heat.
The result was as follows:
Fulton Maid.....1 3 2
W. F. Hayes.....2 1 1
Jockey.....3 2 3
G. W. Howe.....4 5 4
Lisbon Bay.....5 4 5
Time—2:30 1/2.

In the pacing race there were three starters, but Nellie C had it all her own way, in 2:30, 2:29 1/2, over George and Grace Hall.
The running race had three starters' Brightlight, Bridget, and Swindler. Brightlight was an easy winner in 1:49 1/2, 1:50 1/2, Bridget second in both heats.
The premiums will be published next week as soon as they are passed upon by the Board of Directors.

ZEPESIA.—Zepesia was introduced in America two years ago. Large quantities have been used for Dyspepsia, and as a panacea for the Liver, and the manufacturers have yet to hear of a cure of Dyspepsia or Biliousness, when Zepesia was used as directed, in which it was not more than satisfactory. Many write that it is a wonderful remedy. We can show where as high as 40 pounds were gained by its use in breaking up chronic Biliousness and Dyspepsia. Its friends increase very fast and all who use as directed are surprised and gratified. Ask Prentice & Evenson.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Ellen Bolden, of Chicago, is in town visiting friends.
—Dr. O. B. Lusk, is in the city for a few days seeing old friends.
—Ex-Senator Orrin Bacon, of Green county, was in the city to-day.
—Mr. B. B. Eldredge was the starter of the races at the fair grounds.
—Joe Creighton, of Whitewater, was among the night-seers at the Rock County Fair, yesterday.
—The Hon. George B. Loring and his secretary, Mr. O. D. La Dow, left for Washington this morning.
—The Rev. Dr. Hodge has returned from Beaver Dam where he attended the Baptist Convention during the present week.
—Invitations were issued to-day by Miss M. E. Gould to a large party to be given by her at the Myers house one week from this evening.
—Mrs. St. John has been engaged to lead the choir of Court street church during the ensuing year; and Miss Julie C. Wilson has also been engaged as organist for the fourth year.
—Mr. Fred Hart, has returned to his old position as clerk of the Davis house, having severed his connection with the De Judge minstrel party just one day before they got wrecked in a small Minnesota town.

—Miss Braze, one of the teachers in the Janesville High School, spent a portion of to-day visiting the Beloit schools, Janesville schools being closed to-day and to-morrow, on account of the fair.—Beloit Free Press.

—Mrs. Mal Hughes, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pratt, leaves on the 9th inst., for Las Vegas, New Mexico, to join her husband. Being quite a favorite in society here, she will be greatly missed. We wish her a safe journey to her new home.

—Mr. Charles Jenkins left to-day for Lake Koshkonong, where he will remain six or seven weeks duck shooting. He is well provided with all the necessities and a selection of luxuries, and expects to enjoy himself in more ways than creating a sad havoc among the canvas backs and red-heads.

—Mrs. J. W. Burton, who for the past three seasons was the leading lady of the Herbert combination, is now in Chicago, engaged at the Criterion theatre. She is a great favorite here, and indeed wherever she appeared with the company, but preferred to remain in Chicago, and perfect her musical studies, to again taking the road. She is now taking a course at Central Music Hall.

BRIGHT-EYED MILITARY.

The Broom Brigade Drill and Entertainment a Flattering Success.

A large and brilliant audience attended the Broom Brigade drill and entertainment at the Guards' armory last night, and general pleasure was the result. It was unfortunately a great disappointment to every one that the Rockford brigade had declined at the last moment to meet our bright-eyed feminine military in a friendly contest, but the excellent programme was all that could well be desired. The array of brooms was formidable enough to sweep everything before them, and the brigade had a complete surrender of the audience, of every feeling but admiration was made.

The exhibition of drilling was much better than on the two previous occasions when the brigade made an onslaught upon the susceptibilities and the pockets of the public, in aid of a deserving cause. Beauty always commands admiration, but when that beauty is decked out in national colors and armed with a broom, it becomes all powerful, as far as masculinity is concerned, at least, and it makes little difference whether the beauty, the stars and stripes, or the broom achieves the ascendancy. The brigade performed a number of the most difficult evolutions, and as the Guards also gave an exhibition the audience had a splendid opportunity of judging the comparative performances. The Guards, as a matter of course were eclipsed, and doubtless thinking that there was a great deal of virtue in brooms, they purchased the sweepers at the auction after the drill.

Even after resigning their arms, or rather brooms, the brigade continued their conquests in the ball room. Miss Belle Rolston was the orderly sergeant, as Richard Grant White might say, and acquitted herself of her important duties in a faultless manner, receiving the highest praise for her accurate knowledge of every detail and graceful demeanor. Dr. M. A. Newman was their drill master, and proved himself a thorough master of the tactics.

Prof. Harry Arnold entertained with a fantasia of Schumann's on the piano, oriented in his admirable style, and gave the Wiener-BonBon waltz as an encore.

Among others who contributed to the evening's enjoyment were Mesdames H. A. Smith and J. D. King, and Misses Peterson and Lillian Child de Long, all of whom received an encore. Among the audience were a number of ladies from Madison and other places, the Hon. George B. Loring, commissioner of Agriculture, Adjutant General C. P. Chapman, Mr. O. D. La Dow, private secretary to Dr. Loring and other distinguished persons.

After the entertainment dancing was indulged in. The receipts amounted to $125, and with what has already been contributed to the organ fund of Christ church, is sufficient to purchase the organ, a small balance only being needed to place the organ in the sanctuary.
